Career employees in the Professional & Support Staff (PSS) and Managers & Senior Professionals (MSP) personnel groups who are not Officers of the University.
II. DEFINITIONS

Detailed information about common terms used within Personnel Policies for Staff Members can be found in Personnel Policies for Staff Members 2 (Definition of Terms) and Personnel Policies for Staff Members 3 (Types of Appointment).
Career Tracks: A classification structure that groups jobs into broad categories (defined as Operational and Technical, Professional, and Supervisory and Management) based on primary functions and scope and level of responsibilities.

Exception to Policy: An action that exceeds what is allowable under current policy or that is not expressly provided for under policy. Any such action must be treated as an exception.

Executive Officer: The University President or Chancellor.

Job Abandonment: The failure to report to work as scheduled for five consecutive workdays without notice or approval.

Top Business Officer: Executive Vice President–Business Operations for the Office of the President, Vice Chancellor for Administration, or the position responsible for the location’s financial reporting and payroll as designated by the Executive Officer.

III. POLICY STATEMENT

A. Job Abandonment
An employee who fails to report to work as scheduled for five consecutive workdays without notice or without approval may be considered to have voluntarily resigned from his/her position due to job abandonment. The University will provide the employee with a written notice of intent to separate due to job abandonment. The notice must include the reason(s) for the separation and a statement that the employee has the right to respond either orally or in writing within 8 calendar days. After the employee has responded or after 8 calendar days, whichever comes first, management will review the response, if any, and issue a final decision. This decision is not eligible for review under the complaint resolution policies.

B. Termination: Professional & Support Staff

1. General
Regular status professional and support staff may be terminated from employment because of misconduct or failure to maintain appropriate work performance standards. Normally, termination is preceded by corrective action (see Staff PolicyPersonnel Policies for Staff Members 62, [Corrective Action]) unless unsatisfactory performance or misconduct warrants immediate dismissal is warranted.

2. Written Warning
When termination is for failure to maintain appropriate work performance standards, the employee must receive at least one written warning shall precede the prior to termination unless the unsatisfactory performance warrants immediate dismissal.

Termination for misconduct does not require a written warning.

3. Notice and Decision
When an employee is to be terminated, the employee shall must receive written notice of the intent to terminate, which shall. This notice must include a statement of the reason(s) for the intended action, a copy of any materials upon which the termination is based, and a statement that the employee has a right to respond either orally or in writing within 8 calendar days of the date of the notice of intent to terminate. After the employee has responded or after 8 calendar days, whichever comes first, management shall review the response, if any, and inform the employee of the action to be taken.

4. Pay in Lieu of Notice
An employee shall receive at least 15 calendar days’ notice prior to termination or pay in lieu of notice. The 15 calendar days shall be counted from the date of the notice or of intent to terminate. However, if the termination is for misconduct, the employee may be suspended without pay as of the date of the notice of intent to terminate. If the employee provides a timely response to the notice of intent, the employee may be terminated immediately after consideration of that response. If the employee does not provide a timely response to the notice of intent, and the employee may be terminated immediately on after the eighth day following the date of the notice of the intent to terminate or after consideration of the employee’s timely response to the notice of intent to terminate, whichever is earlier.

C. Termination: Managers & Senior Professionals – Manager 3 and Below and Equivalent Positions

1. Applicability
Section III.C of this policy applies as follows:

a. Career Tracks
For positions that have transitioned to the Career Tracks structure, Section III.C of this policy applies to employees in MSP positions classified at Manager 3 and below, unless the location has grandfathered these employees under the termination provisions that applied to their pre-Career Tracks classification.

b. Non-Career Tracks
For positions that have not yet transitioned to the Career Tracks structure, Section III.C of this policy applies to employees in the MSP positions listed below until these positions transition to Career Tracks:
- MSP positions in salary grades 1-7;
- MSP positions at UC Irvine Medical Center and UC Santa Barbara;
- MSP positions at UC San Diego in salary grades A-D.

2. General
Managers and senior professionals, as listed in Section C.1 above, who hold career appointments in salary grades I through VII may be terminated when, in management’s judgment, the needs or resources of a department or the performance or conduct of an employee do not justify the continuation of an employee’s appointment.
3. Notice and Decision
When an appointment is to be terminated, the employee shall receive written notice of the intent to terminate, which must include a statement of the reason(s) for the intended action, a copy of any materials upon which the termination is based, and a statement that the employee has the right to respond either orally or in writing within 8 calendar days of the date of the notice of intent to terminate. After the employee has responded or after 8 calendar days, whichever comes first, management shall review the response, if any, and inform the employee of the action to be taken.

4. Pay in Lieu of Notice
An employee terminated for reasons other than misconduct shall receive 60 calendar days' notice of termination or pay in lieu of notice. The 60 calendar days shall be counted from the date of the notice of intent to terminate. However, an employee who receives a notice of intent to terminate if the termination is for misconduct, the employee may be suspended without pay as of the date of the notice of intent to terminate. If the employee provides a timely response to the notice of intent, the employee may be terminated immediately after consideration of that response. If the employee does not provide a timely response to the notice of intent, and the employee may be terminated without further notice immediately after the eighth day after the date of the notice of intent to terminate or after consideration of the employee's timely response to the notice of intent to terminate, whichever is earlier.

Managers and senior professional employees may be assisted, at the discretion of the Chancellor, as follows:

a. Assignment of the employee to another position, if a position is available, the employee is qualified to perform the work, and the assignment is in the University's interest.
b. Career counseling or outplacement services.
c. Reasonable time off with pay for interviews for other positions both within and outside the University.
d. A location may grant severance pay in the amount of one month of pay, or less, for each completed year of continuous University service to a maximum of six months of severance pay. Payment of severance is conditioned upon the employee entering into a written separation agreement which is approved by the University in accordance with the Policy on Settlement of Litigation, Claims, and Separation Agreements (Regents Policy 4105).

ii. No severance pay shall be provided when termination has resulted from misconduct, as determined by the Chancellor or his/her designee.

iii. An employee who is reemployed at any University location in any capacity during the paid severance period is required to repay the University an amount equal to the severance pay received for the time period beginning with the date of hire in the new position to the end of the paid severance period.

In the event the monthly salary in the new position is less than the monthly salary used to calculate the severance pay amount, the employee is required to repay to the University an amount based on the monthly salary of the new position for the time period beginning with the date of hire in the new position to the end of the paid severance period.

A written repayment plan is to be agreed upon between the employee and the University before commencement of work.

D. Termination: Managers & Senior Professionals – Above Manager 3 and Equivalent Positions

1. Applicability
Section III.D of this policy applies as follows:

a. Career Tracks
For positions that have transitioned to the Career Tracks structure, Section III.D of this policy applies to employees in MSP positions classified above Manager 3.

b. Non-Career Tracks
For positions that have not yet transitioned to the Career Tracks structure, Section III.D of this policy applies to employees in the MSP positions listed below until these positions transition to Career Tracks:

- MSP positions in salary grades 8 and above, except those MSP positions at UC Irvine Medical Center (covered under Section III.C above); and
- MSP positions at UC San Diego in salary grades E-F.

2. General
Managers and senior professionals as listed in Section D.1 above who holding career appointments in salary grades VIII and IX serve at the discretion of the Chancellor and may be terminated at will and at any time with or without cause. The at-will status of these employees appointed to salary grades VIII and IX cannot be altered except by amendment of this Policy.

3. Notice
Managers and senior professionals may receive, at the sole discretion of the Chancellor, up to sixty calendar days’ written notice of prior to termination or pay in lieu of notice.

CE. Termination Assistance: Managers & Senior Professionals
Managers and senior professional employees may be assisted, at the discretion of the Chancellor, as follows:
a.1. Assignment of the employee to another position, if a position is available, that the employee is qualified to perform the work, and when the assignment is in the University's interest.

b.2. Career counseling or outplacement services.

c.3. Reasonable time off with pay for interviews for other positions both within and outside the University.

4. Severance

i.a. A location may grant severance pay in the amount of one month of pay, or less, for each completed year of continuous University service up to a maximum of six months of severance pay. Payment of severance is conditioned upon the employee entering into a written separation agreement which is approved by the University in accordance with the Policy on Settlement of Litigation, Claims, and Separation Agreements (Regents Policy 4105).

ii.b. No severance pay shall be provided when termination has resulted from a result of misconduct, as determined by the Chancellor or his/her designee.

iii.c. An employee who is reemployed at any University location in any capacity during the paid severance period is required to repay to the University an amount equal to the severance pay received for the time period beginning with the date of hire in the new position to the end of the paid severance period.

In the event the monthly salary in the new position is less than the monthly salary used to calculate the severance pay amount, the employee is required to repay to the University an amount based on the monthly salary of the new position for the time period beginning with the date of hire in the new position to the end of the paid severance period.

A written repayment plan is to be agreed upon between the employee and the University before commencement of the employee begins work.

IV. COMPLIANCE / RESPONSIBILITIES

A. Implementation of the Policy

The Vice President–Human Resources is the Responsible Officer for this policy and has the authority to implement the policy. The Responsible Officer may develop procedures or other supplementary information to support the implementation of this policy. Such supporting documentation does not require the approval of the President. The Responsible Officer may apply appropriate interpretations to clarify the policy provided that the interpretations do not result in substantive changes to the underlying policy. The Chancellor is authorized to establish and is responsible for local procedures necessary to implement the policy.

In accordance with Personnel Policies for Staff Members 1 (General Provisions), the authorities and responsibilities delegated to the Chancellor in this policy are also delegated to the Executive Vice President–Chief Operating Officer, Vice President– Agriculture and Natural Resources, Principal Officers of the Regents, and the Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory Director. Also in accordance with PPSM 1, the authorities granted in this policy may be redelegated except as otherwise indicated.

B. Revisions to the Policy
The President is the Policy Approver and has the authority to approve policy revisions upon recommendation by the Vice President–Human Resources.

The Vice President–Human Resources has the authority to initiate revisions to the policy, consistent with approval authorities and applicable Bylaws and Standing Orders of the Regents.

The Executive Vice President–Business Operations, Chief Operating Officer has the authority to ensure that policies are regularly reviewed, updated, and consistent with other governance policies.

C. Approval of Actions
Actions within this policy must be approved in accordance with local procedures. Chancellors and the Vice President–Human Resources are authorized to determine responsibilities and authorities at secondary administrative levels in order to establish local procedures necessary to implement this policy.

All actions applicable to PPSM-covered staff employees who are not Senior Management Group members that exceed this policy, or that are not expressly provided for under any policy, must be approved by the Vice President–Human Resources.

D. Compliance with the Policy
The following roles are designated at each location to implement compliance monitoring responsibility for this policy:

The Top Business Officer and/or the Executive Officer at each location will designate the local management office to be responsible for the ongoing reporting of policy compliance.

The Executive Officer is accountable for monitoring and enforcing compliance mechanisms and ensuring that monitoring procedures and reporting capabilities are established.

The Vice President–Human Resources is accountable for reviewing the administration of this policy. The Director–HR Compliance may periodically monitor compliance to this policy.

E. Noncompliance with the Policy
Noncompliance with the policy is handled in accordance with Personnel Policies for Staff Members 61, 62, 63, and 64, 65, and 67, pertaining to disciplinary and separation matters.
V. REQUIRED PROCEDURES

The Responsible Officer may develop procedures or other supplementary information to support the implementation of this policy. Such supporting documentation does not require the approval of the President.

Not applicable.
